

Going Global:

SASKATCHEWAN'S PLACE IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKETPLACE

A unique program combining business learning with intensive English study

Find out how Saskatchewan has grown from a simple agricultural economy to a diverse and thriving supplier in the international market!

Program Dates: January 8 – 26th, 2012

Program Cost: $2,990 CAD (Canadian Dollars)

Includes:

- Homestay accommodation (private room and 3 meals per day)
- 15 – 20 hours of Intermediate English instruction per week by qualified English instructors
- Use of textbooks, course materials, library and computers
- Business seminars with industry specialists
- Workshops on cultural differences in business practices
- Corporate and Industry Tours
- Interactions with Canadian business students
- Saskatchewan-style winter entertainment and farewell party
- All professional and recreational activities
- Transportation to and from airport and all scheduled activities

Why Saskatoon, Saskatchewan?

- The province of Saskatchewan trades with over 169 countries on 6 continents, with global exports topping $30 Billion CAN last year
- Saskatchewan is Canada's largest mineral producer
- Saskatoon is now the fastest growing city in Canada
- The University of Saskatchewan boasts one of the most beautiful campuses in the country

Learn about the export-driven Saskatchewan economy firsthand from industry and government experts in areas such as:

- Mining
- Oil and Gas
- Agriculture and Livestock
- Bio-Technology
- Telecommunications
- Pharmaceuticals
- Ethanol
- Food and Beverage
- Agricultural Manufacturing
- Trucking

HANLON CENTRE
INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STUDIES

www.usask.ca